› Day 1 – Lima / Puerto Maldonado

Inkaterra Reserva Amazonica provides an authentic experience in the Peruvian Amazon. Ranked by National Geographic Traveler as one of the 25 Best Ecotourism destinations (2013), it is located within 15,000Ha of protected virgin rainforest along the Madre de Dios River. Guiding, meals and transfers are included in this hotel of 35 wooden cabanas, with an eco-friendly design inspired by the style of the Ese'Eja native community. Upon arrival to Puerto Maldonado Airport, travel by river (45 min.) to the hotel. Inkaterra Reserva Amazonica allows the option to tailor-made your itinerary by choosing 14 à-la-carte excursions included in your stay. Suggested activities for your first day are the Trail System and Twilight River.

› Day 2 – Puerto Maldonado

Discover Peru's Southeastern Amazon in the company of our Inkaterra Explorer Guides. We recommend a boat ride at Lake Sandoval (Tambopata National Reserve), a water mirror surrounded by wetlands, natural habitat of howler monkeys, black caimans, giant river otters, jaguars and an outstanding diversity of bird species. Get ready in the afternoon to climb the Inkaterra Canopy Walkway, a 344m system of two platforms, eight observation towers and seven hanging bridges, built at 30m above the ground to study wildlife at the canopy. Get a privileged view of the rainforest by spending the night at the Inkaterra Canopy Treehouse (additional cost).

› Day 3 – Puerto Maldonado

Wake up early to enjoy a motorized canoe ride followed by a long walk to reach the adventures of Gamitana creek, to appreciate the rich flora and fauna along the way. In the afternoon, visit Inkaterra Hacienda Concepcion, a 35-minute ride upriver takes you to the home of a remarkable Botanical Garden with over 200 different species of rainforest plants. Relax in the afternoon in our massage rooms facing the Madre de Dios River (additional cost). Other suggested activity for your third day is Rainforest by Night.

› Day 4 – Puerto Maldonado / Cusco / Machu Picchu

Our team will transport you back to Puerto Maldonado Airport, according to your flight. After a 1½-hour train ride parting from Ollantaytambo station, step down at Machu Picchu Pueblo. You will be assisted to Inkaterra Machu Picchu Pueblo Hotel, a boutique hotel located in the midst of Andean cloud forests. Acknowledged by Travel+Leisure as one of the Best Central & South America – Resorts (2015), the hotel resembles a village with 81 casitas, including two villas. Buffet breakfast and à-la-carte dinner, with fresh and nutritious products obtained from our organic farm, are included during your stay.

› Day 5 – Machu Picchu

Enjoy a day at leisure to visit the Historic Sanctuary of Machu Picchu, declared World Heritage by UNESCO and since 2007, one of the New Seven Wonders of the World. Our staff will be glad to assist you with information regarding a visit to the Machu Picchu citadel (guided excursions are available at additional cost). After your excursion, relax at Inkaterra's UNU Spa, which combines the classic nurturing of a spa with a mystical Andean approach. In the afternoon, sign up for our field excursions provided within hotel grounds: Nature Walk, Tea, and a trail with 372 native orchid species. According to the American Orchid Society, it is the world's largest native orchid collection found in a natural habitat.

› Day 6 – Machu Picchu / Sacred Valley

Join our birding excursion before sunrise, optimum time to watch some of the 214 registered at Inkaterra Machu Picchu Pueblo Hotel. Go in search of the iconic Andean Cock-of-the-Rock, as well as the colorful Pavonine Quetzal and Andean Motmot.

At proper time, you will be assisted to the Machu Picchu train station. Back at Ollantaytambo, you will be transferred to Inkaterra Hacienda Urubamba. The stay includes buffet breakfast with traditional products from our organic farm.

› Day 7 – Sacred Valley

Acknowledged by Travel+Leisure as one of the Best New Hotels on the Planet (2016), Inkaterra Hacienda Urubamba is located in the highlands of the Sacred Valley, a perfect setting for outdoor activities. The boutique hotel provides diverse activities to experience this pastoral landscape in whole.

Visit nearby archeological sites and Andean corn fields at native farms; enjoy cycling or hiking; and be part of the in house excursions including birding, among other options

› Day 8 – Sacred Valley / Cusco

Transfer from the Sacred Valley to Cusco. Check in at Inkaterra La Casona, a 16th century manor house built by Spanish Conquistadores over a former Inca palace site, which had libertador Simón Bolívar among its guests.

The first Relais Et Châteaux property in Peru, Inkaterra La Casona has been restored as an 11-suite luxury hotel with a thorough design that celebrates Cusco's rich history and tradition. Upon arrival, you will be welcomed by one of our hosts, who will escort you to your suite.

› Day 9 – Cusco

Inkaterra La Casona is located only two blocks away from Cusco's Cathedral and Main Square. Walk around the city's cobblestone streets to explore the heart of the Inca Empire and the baroque structures from the Colonial age. Private excursions to places of interest are available upon request.

Recognized by Conde Nast Traveller Readers Travel Award 2015 as "Top 20 Hotels in the Americas and the Caribbean"

› Day 10 – Cusco

Breakfast is included during your stay at Inkaterra La Casona. Enjoy it in our Dining Room or request it at your Suite. After checking out of the hotel, depart to Lima as to connect with your international flight, or as to enjoy one of South America's most appealing cities.

This is a basic itinerary which can serve as an inspiration for your trip to Peru. Additional nights may be considered in our hotels for a more relaxed experience, in the rainforest, in Machu Picchu and Cusco; also in Lima, the Sacred Valley, Puno, Arequipa and other important destinations within the country.
